GREAT BOOKS FINAL PROJECT: DIGITAL WEBSITE PORTFOLIO

Activity Title: My Literary Journey: A Great Books Digital Portfolio

I. General Instructions

As your culminating performance task in Great Books, you are required to create a Digital Website Portfolio that showcases your learning experiences, literary analyses, insights, and personal reflections throughout the course. Your portfolio should demonstrate your understanding and appreciation of the literary masterpieces discussed and analyzed in class, including your ability to apply literary lenses, interpret themes, and establish meaningful connections between literature and real-life experiences. You may use Google Sites, Canva Website, Wix, or any other accessible website-building platform to develop your portfolio.

II. Required Parts of the Portfolio

1. Student Profile

Create an introductory page that presents yourself as a student and reader of literature.
Include the following:

- Complete name, course, year, and section
- Recent and appropriate photograph
- Brief personal introduction
- Personal interests and experiences related to reading and literature
- A short statement describing your expectations or learning experiences in Great Books

2. Compilation of Seven (7) Literary Analyses

Compile the seven (7) literary analyses you have accomplished throughout the course.
Each analysis must contain:

- Title of the literary masterpiece
- Name of the author (if applicable)
- Literary lens used in analyzing the masterpiece
- Complete literary analysis
- Relevant image or visual representation of the masterpiece (optional)

Ensure that your analyses are properly organized, clearly labeled, and presented in a readable format. You may improve the organization, grammar, and presentation of your previous outputs without changing the substance of your original analyses.

3. My Favorite Literary Masterpiece

Select one (1) literary masterpiece from the works discussed or analyzed throughout the course that you consider the most meaningful or memorable.
Discuss the following:

- Title and author of the masterpiece
- Brief overview of the literary work
- Reasons for choosing it as your favorite

• Significant themes, characters, or lessons that influenced your appreciation of the work • Personal connections or realizations gained from reading the masterpiece

4. Summary of Learning

Provide a comprehensive summary of the important knowledge, concepts, and skills you have acquired throughout the Great Books course.

Your summary may include:

• Understanding of literary masterpieces from different historical periods and cultures • Knowledge and application of different literary lenses

• Appreciation of literature as a reflection of human experiences, beliefs, and societies • Development of critical thinking, interpretation, and analytical skills

5. Personal Reflection

Write a meaningful reflection on your overall learning journey in Great Books.

Use the following questions as your guide:

1. How has your understanding and appreciation of literature changed throughout the course?
2. What challenges did you encounter when reading and analyzing literary masterpieces, and how did you overcome them?
3. Which literary lens or approach influenced your interpretation of literature the most? Why?
4. What important realizations about life, society, culture, or human nature have you gained?
5. How can you apply the lessons and values learned from Great Books in your personal, academic, or future professional life?

III. Website Design and Presentation Guidelines

1. Your website must have a clear homepage and organized navigation menu for all five required sections.
2. Use a consistent and appropriate design, including readable fonts, complementary colors, and suitable visual elements.
3. Ensure that all written content is grammatically correct, coherent, and properly formatted.
4. You are encouraged to incorporate relevant images, quotations, and other creative elements to enhance your portfolio.
5. All seven literary analyses must be accessible and readable within the website. 6. The website must be accessible through a shareable link. Make sure that the instructor has permission to view all pages and uploaded materials.
7. The content must reflect your own understanding, analysis, and personal experiences. Properly acknowledge any external sources or materials used.

IV. Assessment Criteria (100 Points)

Criteria	Points

Completeness of Required Portfolio Sections	20
Quality and Organization of Seven Literary Analyses	30
Depth of Discussion on Favorite Masterpiece	15
Comprehensiveness of Learning Summary	10
Depth and Authenticity of Personal Reflection	15
Website Design, Creativity, and Navigation	10
TOTAL	100

V. Submission Guidelines

Submit the published website link through the designated Google Classroom assignment on or before the announced deadline. Before submitting, ensure that all required sections are complete, your website functions properly, and the link is accessible to the instructor.

Important Reminder: This portfolio is not merely a compilation of academic requirements. It is a representation of your growth as a reader, critical thinker, and student of literature. Your output should demonstrate not only what you have learned about great literary masterpieces but also how these works have shaped your understanding of yourself and the world around you.
